

M.Vittoria Patti

I am a passionate Game Designer with years of experience in the video game industry.

Organized and meticulous, I prioritize tasks diligently to deliver high-standard products.

I have a keen eye for detail and have experience in game design, from concept to project release and beyond.

My expertise includes Product Vision, Project Management, and Mentorship.

Reliable and flexible, I quickly adapt to different situations. I am a fast learner, eager to dive into new projects.

Some of the products I worked on include, but are not limited to, Love Island: The Game and Football Manager.
